Certificate:

During the training you have to complete tests and homeworks as well. You must successfully take the exams at the end of the training to get the teacher training certificate. You must also participate on the full training and do not miss classes. Participants who do not keep the rules of the studio can be asked to finish the training without any refund during the training. Being late on the teacher training course is not accepted.

If you miss classes or days on a teacher training:

You must take private classes for extra fee to complete the training successfully and have the minimum contact hours of the training. You can miss maximum 4 days of a training, if you miss more, you are not allowed to go to the exams.

Yoga Alliance terms and conditions:

Yoga Alliance changes its terms and conditions, and registration rules from time to time. At the moment you can register yourself as a teacher by Yoga Alliance, if you send them your scanned yoga teacher's certificate, your school is active (paid its annual fee), and your school is giving feedback that you completed the training successfully. You must also pay your fees to Yoga Alliance to be a member. We suggest to register as soon as possible at Yoga Alliance to be accepted for 100%, after receiving your certificate.

I choose the following Fee option: 1 / 2

I apply to the teacher training and I accept the terms and conditions above. I take part on the training on my own liability, I will inform the trainer about all my actual health issues to get more detailed instruction, and I follow those guidelines.
